I can say without reservation that this retreat is among the most helpful and useful spiritual exercises I have ever experienced. I am a little more able to surrender control to the one who loves me so. I've lost a lot of fear about speaking to Jesus directly.

She is a reflection of eternal light, a spotless mirror of the working of God. S
This retreat has made a difference in my life by increasing my longing for Christ. While no dogma within Thelema expresses the purpose behind any individual aspirant who chooses to perform "Resh", note that the practice of "Resh" is not a simple petition toward the sun, nor a form of "worshiping" the celestial body that we call the Sun, but instead uses the positioning of that source of light, which enables life on our planet, as well as using mythological images of that solar force, so that the individual can perform the prayer, possibly furthering a self-identification with the sun, so "that repeated application of the Liber Resh adorations expands the consciousness of the individual by compelling him to take a different perspective, by inducing him to 'look at things from the point of view of the Sun' [
