These causes account for approximately 54 percent of all infant deaths. I've driven through my share of rural Tennessee, where much of American Gods takes place, and one of the most striking things about these communities is the fact that there seems to be one church for every six or seven houses. Afterdoesnotdo.Isimplydetestthisbook. So none of this is happening. Instead of being a sad but common family experience, death in childhood now stands out as a particular tragedy, at least in developed nations such as the United States.
