On some deep level of consciousness, the knowledge that humans are not basically carnivorous arouses an unconscious sense of immorality and sin whenever we partake of nourishment that we know involved the shedding of blood. Ghosts are simply the leftover stuff that did not die when the physical body died. But by the time all the usual suspects were assembled for House of Dracula it was too late. The etheric plane is the entire "universe" of these etheric objects, plus etheric objects that do not correspond directly to things in this plane, as well as other "stray" etheric matter. Yet the head did not appear to be human. The Basquemen learned what news they could from pirates and smugglers who passed through on larger errands and disdainfully accepted the charity of the Church when it was offered, but caught as they were between two great warring forces, the Basquemen and their families were soon left to fend for themselves to pass that brutal winter.

Bear People It requires little imagination to understand why the bear became the old-time Prussia, Livonia, and Lithuania come reports of packs of werewolves that gathered each Christmas in many villages, breaking into people's beer cellars and having drunken celebrations.
