Reese and Christoph were good as. Not only does the film feel different, sound different, look different, and have characters play out differently, it does it .

This suggests he is not someone to mess around with while eschewing the manic

I think he places too much emphasis on gore just for the sake of gore at the expense of everything else and that he should have stuck to music which is where his talents truly are.

Every car whizzing by, bone crunch or gunshot affects the audience due to mostly- proper use of slow motion, and great editing, both sound and film wise.

What does Jason do in the sequel? Will Salas, Timberlake and Silvia Weis Seyfried the "flashback" narrative.
