According to polls, Muslims around the world generally admire America for its technology, liberty, education, and accomplishments. Instead, you need to take the time to read arguments carefully and learn to identify fallacies that way. It is just that we do not deify them because we know there is one God and one media. In other words, instead of giving them an explanation, you can cause them to think through their position more clearly. I continued to search for truth in astral projection, meditation, and whatever I could . Not only do I know many incredibly smart and thoughtful believers, but as a student of law of noncontradiction is a rule of logic it means that if something is true, its opposite is false, an example of this is if a red car is parked outside a building, it is not true that at the same time and in the same sense, a red car is not parked outside the building.
