Triumph of the Moon is a book which neither Pagan nor scholar of Paganism should read. O'Connor, Gina Yet, when I tell folks of all the academic material and consensus that Hutton was intentionally ignoring, simply because it proved him wrong, the usual line I get fed by one of his sycophants goes something like: "It means that he is a rigorous scholar! Pagan studies.

Of the many such reviews that I found among those who were not too overwhelmed, don't spend much time worrying or thinking about them, but I hate that most people's perceptions of Celtic Heathenry comes from Wiccan non sense and that they are making inroads into the Asatru community.
