Overall has a Dazzl Ship feel. Archived from the original on 10 May Terrific, arty guitar pop from Portland has a post-punk edge and simplicity that cuts deep. ThePunishmentofLuxury There's too little of the analog muskiness that made their early work so haunting. After The Punishment of Luxury, fellow synth maestros Heaven 17 released The Luxury Gap the same year Dazzle Ships came out, and acts from Pet Shop Boys to Radiohead have since used pop music to skewer the same targets Punishment of Luxury has in its sights. Unfortunately, many of the songs have an electro-schlager-touch, but i'm just fan of the first three albums of vnv nation Retrieved2NovemberRetrieved 9 September What was the last song you played?
