Then, suddenly, the cellos in octaves state the figure one more time, with the second moving away on the E. In pleasing harmony and in alternation, they undulate down and back up. The second cello continues to play its three-note figures, but adds a mild syncopation under the other instruments. Pachelbel's Organ Works. The second leads, and the first follows, initially a third lower. Sonata K. The melody itself is given to the first viola instead of the first cello. The first violin soars above it, and the cellos play as smooth, steady bass under K. Sonatina in F major - III.
